

The Adam Smith Seminar – WS2010/11

VMP 5, Room 0029, Tuesdays, 18:00–20:00

The Adam Smith Seminar is an interdisciplinary research seminar for the presentation of new work in economics, politics, and philosophy. The Atmosphere is open and informal.

- 19.10.10 No Session (Introduction for students)
- 26.10.10 Janpeter Schilling, CliSAP, University of Hamburg
Climate Change and Conflicts: Overview and Examples
- 02.11.10 Martin Leroch, University of Hamburg
Group Reciprocity
- 09.11.10 Till Düppe, University of Hamburg
Arrow and Debreu de-homogenized
- 16.11.10 Conrad Heilmann, London School of Economics
Foundations of Time Discounting
- 23.11.10 Katri Sieberg, University of Tampere
Title to be announced
- 30.11.10 Ulrike Böhme, University of Hamburg
Entry Regulation and Entrepreneurial Self-Selection
- 07.12.10 Johannes Schwarze, University of Hamburg
Compliance with International Law – The Role of Reputation
- 14.12.10 Hannu Salonen, University of Turku
On the Existence of Markov Perfect Equilibria in Perfect Information Games
- 04.01.11 Philipp Schliffke, University of Hamburg
Title to be announced
- 11.01.11 Pierre Guillet de Monthoux, Copenhagen Business School
Smashing Moneyteism
- 18.01.11 Ute Lampalzer-Smith, University of Hamburg
Louise Sommer – Female Historian and Methodologist of Economics in the early 20th Century.
- 25.01.11 Andreas Nohn, PCRC, University of Turku and Hamburg
Monotonicity of Power in Weighted Voting Games with Restricted Communication
- 01.02.11 No Session (Students examination)